LOCAL BRIEFITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

THE GRAND this evening—"Si Plankard."

OPERA House this evening—"In a Big City."
LIEUT. CLEMENS ran in a plain drunk yesterday forenoon.

THERE will be no matinee at the Grand this afternoon, on account of the fair.
A MEETING of the council committee on police has been called for Thursday evening.

BIDS for whitewashing the Centre market will be received by the market master until Friday at 5 p. m.

THERE were unusually large crowds on the streets last night, and the retail merchants all did a good business.

LIEUT. CLEMENS and Officer Devinney arrested two boys on the State Fair grounds yesterday afternoon for fighting.
YESTERDAY in the circuit court Casina Catarina, a native of Italy, was granted his second papers by Judge Pauli, and became a full fledged American citizen.

A MAN claimed to have had his valise stolen in a Market street saloon yesterday, but the police seemed to regard it as a case of getting mixed in the location of the saloon.

CLERK Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made September 2 by W. J. W. Cowden, trustee, to the Wheeling Building Association, for $750, part of lot 1 in Churchill's addition No. 2, on the east side of McCulloch street.

OFFICER Ritz last night put in a plain drunk, and Lieut. Ingram added an ornamental one to the list. Officer Holmes arrested H. P. Rummel, of New Castle, Pa., for disorderly conduct. There are nine cases on the docket for this morning's court.

THERE were five cases in the police court yesterday, one drunk and four disorderlies. Two men got fifteen days on the hill, two paid their fines, and one woman charged with disorder paid $1 and costs. There were eight witnesses in her case, which grew out of a quarrel about a bar of soap and a shovel.

The White Cap club gave a very enjoyable trolley party Monday evening. They boarded the car at Bridgeport and went over the entire line on that side of the river, after which the party adjourned to the home of Mr. Spinauer, on the island, where dancing was indulged in.

THERE was a pretty lively fight on Market street below Twelfth last night. One man was arrested and the other will be. J. C. Schrevo, of Sistersville, was twice assaulted by another man from Sistersville, who had a grudge against him. The first time Schrevo was cut on the wrist with a knife by the other man, and the second time he got mad and thumped the other man awfully. There was an interval of a couple of squares between the fights.

Probate Business Yesterday.
J. N. Vance was yesterday appointed administrator of the estate of John McClellan, deceased, and gave bond in $10,000, with H. E. Vance as surety.

Right Rev. P. J. Donahue qualified as executor of the last will and testament of Very Rev. Henry F. Parks, deceased, and gave bond in $5,000, without surety, none being required by the terms of the will.

Marriage Licenses Issued.
Clerk Hook yesterday issued marriage licenses to the following named parties: John Grapo, aged 32, of Washington county, Pa., and Nannie Crow, aged 22, of Ohio county, W. Va.

George C. Heilman, aged 24, and Mary L. Coen, aged 19, both of Wheeling.
Aloysius F. Gaus, aged 30, of Wheeling, and Margaret A. Carroll, aged 27, of Ohio county.

The Great Wannamaker & Brown, of Philadelphia, have over 3,000 samples at our Fair of the finest cloth and cassimers as home can produce, for Men's and Boys' Suits, at 33 per cent saving, and every lot guaranteed at No. 1902 Market street.
J. W. Fenner, Agent.

The Steve and Ranges shown at the Fair, made by B. Fisher, are guaranteed to be the same as those sent to their customers.

Mountain Lake Park Excursion.
August 25 to September 4 the Baltimore and Ohio will sell excursion tickets to Mountain Lake Park and return at rate of $4.50, valid for return trip until September 7, inclusive.

THAT LITTLE LIST

Of Indictments Returned by the Grand Jury in Here.

SHORT LICENSE AND CIGARETTES.

Two Interesting Features of the Returns—Only Two Gamblers Indicted and They are Crap Shooters—The Women Came in for About the Usual Share of Attention—Fulton Saloon-keepers "Soaked."

The grand jury got through its work shortly after noon yesterday and made its report. There are no important felonies on the list. The most unexpected feature are the indictments against cigar dealers and druggists for selling cigarettes without having first paid a state license. These will doubtless raise a test as to what Judge Godd's decision in this matter meant. The gaming game has got off easy, as usual, while the women, especially two of them, make up the bulk of the list.

There were 158 true bills returned, and the complete list is given below; it is most interesting to many people because of what is not in it:

Jerry Evans, sr., Jerry Evans, jr., and Peter Sales, felony, breaking into and robbing railroad cars; three true bills.

William Bode, Charles Dean and William Roff, a felony, breaking into and robbing railroad cars.

George Price, breaking and entering Emil Wilhelm's place.

James Harper, felonious assault on William Tyler.

George McGill, felonious assault on John Aitken.

Louis Nolte, petit larceny, with an allegation of two former convictions.

Isaac Littleton, shooting at a person on the street.

A. C. Rowell, wilful destruction of property.

Walter Williams, petit larceny.

Dick Carson, adultery.

Elizabeth M. Gattrell and Charles Doyle, lewd and unlawful cohabitation.

Thomas Gross, attempted burglary.

S. J. Corson, two, Fred Goldstrom, two, playing dice for money (craps).

T. E. Porter 8, Dorothy Bunch 6, Michael Stein 7, Edward Miller 3, Joseph Marshall 4, Isaac Bogard 5, Xavier Zerogin 7, selling liquor without a license ("short license" cases).

Julia Chisnell, renting a house to be used as a house of ill fame, 21 bills; Julia and Martin Chisnell, same, 5 bills.

Clara Moss, keeping house of ill fame, 13 bills; selling beer, 3 bills.

Edith Maywood 2, Edith Baird 2, May Wilson 2, Florence Stevens 2, May Ward, May Brown, Kitty Wilson, Lillie Bell, Mollie Fleming, Annie Williams, Corinne Riley, Nora Collins, Annie Shepherd, Rose Pemberton, Lucy Davis, Flora Anderson, Maggie Williams, Bessie Ashton, Jessie Howard, Maggie Kline, Blanche Young, boarding in houses of ill fame.

John Bald, John Black, John Smith, Samuel Brown, Jim Gaither, Charles Smith, John Brady, John Hicks, loitering or living in houses of ill fame.

Maggie Miller, 2, Ella Miller, 2, Annie Reynolds, Nelly White, Annie Shepherd, Lula Jackson and Kitty Lee, keeping houses of ill fame.

In addition to all these, six true bills were returned for a misdemeanor, selling cigarettes without a license, the parties indicted being J. B. McKee, Meier & Bro., Hugo Loos, Charles Goetze, O. W. Heiskell and J. G. and R. L. McLain.

There were only four or five "not true" bills, none of them of any special public interest.

The docket in this court will be called at 9 a. m. sharp to-day, so as to get done in time to allow the calling of the circuit court docket at 9:30.

The Eclipse of the Moon.
Last night there was a total eclipse of the moon, seen to better advantage in this locality than any for years past. The sky was perfectly clear and the moon at its full. From the beginning of the eclipse, about 9:45 p. m., till its end, at about 3 a. m., it was unobscured from view. Crowds of people gathered at every favorable point and watched the progress of the eclipse.

BOYS' CLOTHING—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

Mrs. Hopkins.

The best Knee Pants on earth are named after Mrs. Hopkins. Suppose she had an army of youngsters, and all boys, she knew what was necessary to give them that wear well, that all tired mothers want. Well, we have them (we mean the Pants, not boys.) 50c, 75c and $1. Double seat, double knee, patent waist band, sewed with linen thread. Do you want a pair?

We Want the Boys

We Wonder

BOYS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING

A great responsibility rests on us as Leading Boys' and Children's Outfitters. And we realize it. Your confidence is too freely placed in our reliability for us to let up on our watchful care even for an instant. In a few days Juvenile Wheeling will start into school, and many are the fruits of our harvest of dressings they will take along with them. The boys and children were never better dressed than they can be this season. There is more variety to select from, and every grade has its standard raised—not the price. You want tough qualities, but you want them in genteel patterns, gracefully cut, and sewed together with the strength of iron. WE ARE SUPPLYING JUST THAT SORT. To the best of our knowledge we haven't a doubtful wearer in all the hundreds of Suits we've got to show. So sure are we of it, that we make our GUARANTEE a gratuity with every purchase. If you ever have cause for complaint, the return of your money pays the penalty. We have searched every fashion mart in this country and brought its best, its choicest novelties away with us, and we've had to stand on our tiptoes to mark the QUALITIES, THE PRICES ARE $0 FAR BELOW THEM. If you take the trouble to make a few comparisons, the light of superiority will shine still the stronger on us.
